

A NIGHT IN PARIS

Cancer Society Ball

5 OCTOBER 2024
MILLENIUM HOTEL
QUEENSTOWN

You are invited to join Naylor Love, Hugo Charitable Trust, and the Cancer Society Otago and Southland Division for an evening of glamour to help support the vital work of the local Cancer Society.

Tickets include canapés on arrival, a delectable three-course menu inclusive of beverages, live and silent auctions, fantastic entertainment, and a live band to dance the night away.

All money raised from this event will help the Cancer Society Otago and Southland Division continue to support and advocate for those impacted by cancer in our community.

BECOME A BALL SPONSOR MAKE A DIFFERENCE

By sponsoring the Queenstown Cancer Ball, you will be helping to make a significant difference in the lives of those impacted by cancer. Thanks to your support over the past year, the Cancer Society Otago and Southland Division has:

Assisted 609 cancer patients and their families, including 260 new patients in Queenstown Lakes District and Central Otago

Their supportive care team is 'on the ground' providing practical advice, wrap-around care, and an enduring sense of hope to whānau

Provided 440 nights of accommodation in Daffodil House for people undergoing cancer treatment in Dunedin

Daffodil House is located across the street from Dunedin Hospital, and serves as a 'home away from home' for patients and their families

Contributed $105,592 to National Research Projects to help reduce the incidence and impacts of cancer across New Zealand

Their partnership with the University of Otago is helping to fund breakthrough research into cancer prevention, treatment, and support

Engaged 172 ongoing volunteers including 48 volunteers who run the popular CanShop

CanShop Queenstown sells quality pre-loved goods and is run 100% by volunteers day-to-day

Please turn over to find out how your organisation can join the Cancer Society in its mission to reduce the incidence and impact of cancer. . .
